DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-20 are pending in the present application

Response to Arguments

The rejection of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph as failing to satisfy the written description requirement has been withdrawn in view of Applicant's amendment.

Claims 1-20 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Jiang et al. Applicant argues that the rejection over Jiang et al. cannot stand because it is not "by others" as required by 35 U.S.C. 102(a). The inventive entity of the present application differs from the authors of the publication. Applicant states that the contribution of the other authors was related to routine technical assistance under the direction of the inventors.

According to MPEP 2132, "a prima facie case is made out under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) if, within 1 year of the filing date, the invention, or an obvious variant thereof, is described in a "printed publication" whose authorship differs in any way from the inventive entity unless it is stated within the publication itself that the publication is describing the applicant's work. In re Katz, 687 F.2d 450, 215 USPQ 14 (CCPA 1982)." In order to properly overcome this rejection, the submission of a specific declaration by the Applicant establishing that the article is describing Applicant's own work is required. In re Katz, 687 F.2d 450, 215 USPQ 14 (CCPA 1982).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
